

Executive Protection Course

December 16-27, 2007, Israel

1. B.P.S. TRAINING PROGRAMS

B.P.S. offers a wide range of training programs and workshops, which are continuously updated to ensure their operational relevance in today's fast-changing threat environment.

Courses are offered to organizations and individuals applying for B.P.S. certification and membership and found to be requiring additional training, as well as to B.P.S. members wishing to expand their knowledge and skills in specific security disciplines.

The trainers conducting B.P.S.'s training programs are all graduates of the renowned Israel Security Agency (ISA) and other Israeli governmental security bodies. The majority of these trainers periodically undergo recurrent training within the framework of the ISA's reserves unit, where they are also updated on new techniques, technologies and intelligence.

Our training programs are based on a unique training method developed by B.P.S. Association to meet the threats and needs of the 21st century, which we have named TACT™. This method's uniqueness lies in the integration of four components that complement each other, forming a comprehensive, cost-effective solution:

Theory - updated theory and doctrines based on the latest governmental security training methods.

Close Combat - martial arts/hand-to-hand combat implementing world leading techniques.

Arms - diverse weapons and their use in the civilian environment to effectively combat terrorism and organized crime.

Tactics - real-life scenarios based on various types of attacks carried out around the world, and the analysis of anticipated Modi operandi of terrorist groups and criminal organizations.

The course material is delivered through frontal lessons, case studies, simulations, role play and exercises – as needed to ensure maximal training effectiveness.

B.P.S. conducts its training programs at a fully equipped training facility in Israel, or at a location of the trainees' choice in other countries (provided a suitable facility is available).

We hereby invite you to participate in our Executive Protection Course, scheduled to be delivered in Israel between December 16 and December 27, 2007.

2. EXECUTIVE PROTECTION COURSE

2.1 General

B.P.S.'s two-week Executive Protection Course is intended for individuals who are interested in acquiring the know-how and skills required for the provision of executive protection services.
